

St. Hedwig Catholic Church
Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion
Application

Baptized and Confirmed Catholic men and women of at least 25 years of age are eligible for this ministry. They should be persons who sincerely try to live the Gospel message in their communal and individual lives. If they are married, they should be married in the Church (divorce does not make one ineligible to serve as an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion). They should faithfully participate in the Sunday Eucharist and with God's grace in every aspect of their lives. People under the age of 25 must be individually recommended for delegation by their pastors.

Candidates for extraordinary ministry of Holy Communion are to be properly trained in the parish, receive delegation from the Bishop or his Episcopal Delegate to serve in a particular parish and be commissioned for services in the parish before they serve.

The names of those that the Pastor requests for delegation as ministers are to be submitted to the Office for Worship. Delegation is for, at most, a two year term. At the Pastor's discretion, delegation may be renewed upon request.
